Revenue Cycle Execution Specialist – Denials & Appeals

Hiring organization
Alico Healthcare

Description

About the Role:

At Alico, we don't believe in throwing human hours at tasks a machine can do. Our secure automation handles routine status pulls and initial routing, which means our Execution Specialists focus entirely on what matters: high-level problem solving. We are seeking an RCM professional to manage our complex denial exceptions, build defensible clinical appeals, and identify root-cause trends to prevent future revenue leakage.

Employment Type
Part-time

Industry
Healthcare RCM Operations

Responsibilities

What You Will Do:

- Manage a highly targeted daily worklist of complex, high-dollar denials and stalled accounts.
- Build evidence-first appeal packets strictly aligned with clinical documentation, medical necessity, and payer-specific policies.
- Analyze payer behavior and reason codes to identify recurring denial trends.
- Collaborate with the Performance Office to implement upstream fixes that eliminate repeat denial drivers.

Job Location
Remote work from: Boston, MA

Working Hours
8:00 – A.M – 2:00 P.M

Base Salary
$ 17 - $ 20

Date posted
February 24, 2026

Valid through
31.05.2026

Qualifications

Who We Are Looking For:

- 3+ years of enterprise RCM experience specifically focused on complex denials and clinical appeals.
- Deep fluency in navigating payer portals, reading claim edits, and understanding timely filing rules.
- An operator who values clean execution, clear ownership, and measurable closure over simple "task volume."

Job Benefits

Location: Remote (Strictly limited to MA, FL, or NC residents)

Schedule: Part-Time (25 hours/week)
